

Matins Canon, Tone 6

Ode 1

When_____ the Israelites crossed the a - byss as if on___ dry land and saw Pha - raoh their perse - cu - tor drown - ing in the sea, they cried out:

Let us sing a hymn of vic - to - ry to___ our___ God.

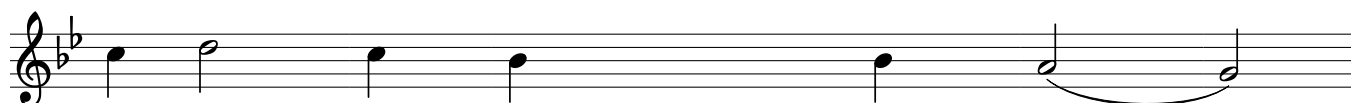

Ode 3

None___ is ho - ly as You, O Lord my God;

In Your good - ness, You have exalted the strength of Your faith - ful, and You have established us on the unshakea-ble rock_____ of___ the con - fes - sion of___ Your___ Name.

Ode 4

Christ_____ is my___ strength, my Lord_____ and my God!

This is the___ hymn that the ho - ly Church_____ pro - claims,_____ and___ with a pu - ri - fied_____ heart, she prai - ses the Lord.

Ode 5

O___ God most___ good, il - lu - mine with Your di - vine bright - ness

The souls of those who love You and keep watch be - fore___ You. I be - seech You,

O Word of God,_____ Grant that they may know You, the true God,

Who_____ calls us out of the dark - ness of sin.

Ode 6

When I see the o-c-ean of this life tossed a - bout by the tempest of temp-ta - tions,

I hasten to Your har - bor of peace and cry out to You:

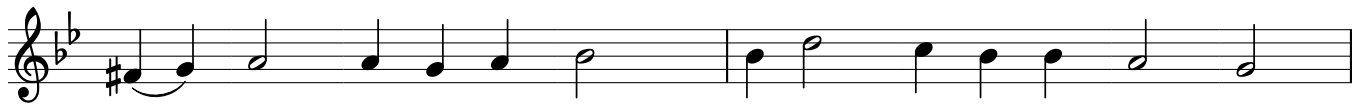

Pre-serve my life from cor-rup - tion, O Most Mer - ci - ful One.

Ode 7

In the fur - nace the An - gel poured out dew up - on the no - ble Youths, but at the or - der of God

the fire burned the Chal-de - ans; and the ty - rant was forced to sing:

Bles - sed are You, O God of our fa - thers!

Ode 8

You made dew spring forth amid the flames for Your holy ones, and through water You set fire to the sacrifice of Your righteous one,
for You accomplish all things through Your will alone.
O Christ, we exalt You through all ages.

Ode 9

For humanity it is impossible to see God, upon whom even the angels dare not gaze; but because of You, O most pure one, the Word made flesh is seen by mortals; and when we magnify you together with the heavenly armies, we proclaim you blessed.